

The CONNECT Bible Study Method

C — Call

What is God saying?

Begin by asking the Holy Spirit to speak through His Word. Read the passage slowly, prayerfully, and in context.

Questions to ask:

- What passage am I studying?
- What is happening in the surrounding context?
- Have I prayed for God to teach me?
- What first stands out as I read?

O — Observe

What does the passage actually say?

Before interpreting or applying, simply observe the text carefully.

Questions to ask:

- Who is speaking?
- Who is being addressed?
- What is happening?
- What commands, promises, warnings, or examples do I see?
- Are there repeated words or ideas?
- What do I learn about God?
- What do I learn about people?
- What surprises me?

N — Notice

What deserves closer attention?

Slow down and identify details that should not be overlooked.

Questions to ask:

- Which word or phrase stands out?
- Is there something I don't understand?
- Why might the author have included this detail?
- What emotions are present?
- Are there connections to other Scriptures?
- What questions does this passage raise?

N — Next

What is the next faithful step?

Scripture is meant to move us toward obedience.

Questions to ask:

- If I believe this passage, what should change?
- Is there a command to obey?
- Is there a sin to confess?
- Is there a promise to trust?
- Is there someone I need to forgive?
- What is my next step of obedience today?

E — Examine

How does this expose my heart?

Invite the Holy Spirit to search your motives, attitudes, and actions.

Questions to ask:

- What does this reveal about my heart?
- Where am I believing something different than God?
- Where am I resisting God's will?
- What needs to grow in my life?
- How would someone who knows me best answer these questions?

C — Commit

What specific action will I take?

Application should always be specific, measurable, and timely.

Questions to ask:

- What will I do?
- When will I do it?
- Who can help hold me accountable?
- How will I know I've obeyed?

Complete the sentence:

Because of God's Word, this week I will...

T — Tell

Who needs to hear what God has taught me?

God's truth is meant to be shared, not merely stored.

Questions to ask:

- Who needs this encouragement?
- Who could I disciple with this truth?
- How can I naturally share what God has shown me?
- Is there someone I should invite to read this passage with me?

The dailyRhythm of CONNECTing to the Bible

The method follows a simple progression:

- Call — Invite God to speak.
- Observe — Discover what the text says.
- Notice — Slow down and pay attention.
- Next — Identify the next step of obedience.
- Examine — Allow God to search your heart.
- Commit — Decide what you will do.
- Tell — Share what God has taught you with someone else.

This progression mirrors the pattern of biblical discipleship: God speaks, we listen, we obey, and then we help others do the same.

Weekly Questions:
"Let's Talk About Our Week"

What is something you are starting to want or care about more than before?

What have you learned about God this week?

What have you learned about yourself?

What are some good habits you are starting to do more often, like praying or reading your Bible?

What is something you still want to get better at?

Did God show you anything wrong in your heart or actions this week?

What did you do about it?

What is one step you are taking to follow God better this week?

Who helps you follow God and encourages you?

Who are you helping or encouraging?

How do you see God changing who you are on the inside, not just what you know?

What do you think God wants you to work on next?

What did you learn about people and how they act or respond?

N – Next Steps
What is one big truth from this story that is still true today?

How does this truth help people in real life?

E – Examine
How does this truth fit with other Bible stories you know?

What does this show you about God's big plan?

C – Commit
What is one thing God wants you to do because of what you read?

What might make that hard, and how can God help you?

T – Tell
Who could you share this with today?

How can you live this out by the way you talk or act?

Day 5

C – Call

When you prayed today, what did you ask God to show you about Himself?

What did you ask God to show you about your own heart or what He wants you to do next?

O – Observe

What stood out to you most in what you read today?

What was happening in the story? Who was there, and what did they do?

N – Notes

What did you learn about God from this reading?

What did you learn about people and how they act or respond?
